“ She was Mrs VanZant when I knew her as our organist and choirmaster for the junior choir at Trinity. She'd allow a couple of us to join her in the choir loft during the postludes... she'd point at a note we could hit during her final chord! What a fun memory!

Lois was a dear friend and neighbor in Roberts Park four years. She was truly a Class act. A fond memory fo me is when we took 🧵 sewing lessons at the local Community College and made the ugliest 👗 dresses that ever existed!
Our Deepest Sympathy to Kristen, Frank and the Grandkids.
