“ Hello... My name is George Isleib and this is the first I knew about Lou's passing. Lou and I were very close friends for the past 50 years or more. I knew Lou and his wife Rose whom we exchanged visits. My friend Lou was a very intelligent person who was an avid weather enthusiast like myself. We exchanged many thought and ideas over the years on this subject. We spoke many times over the telephone exchanging ideas and information on many many subjects. Lou was a very kind person, a loving husband, enjoyed life and also helping others including myself. I remember the many times we met at the satellite meetings and discussed many items with reference to the weather satellites. I will miss my dear friend Lou and his wife who are now together in heaven above. May God bless both of them. With the most sincere condolences to the family and I will remember them forever.
