

Louise Dow

October 11, 2023

Louise was born in Philadelphia on March 14, 1936, to Janet and Sheridan Long. Her father was a musician in a large national band, but he died when Louise was 18 months old. After WWII Janet married Roger Gusky who had served in the United States Army during the war in the Pacific campaign.

After graduating from Lower Merion High School in 1954, Louise married and had three sons, Bradford Price (Stuart Esack), Douglas Price (Linda) and Larry Price. She was a devoted mother, taking them to tutors and music lessons and often on trips by herself to such places as New York, Washington, and Florida. Additionally, Larry has special needs which required a lot of her attention.

Louise married Jim Dow in 1978 and they were very happily married for 45 years. Together they played tennis, traveled a lot and enjoyed investing in Real Estate. Louise was also an excellent bowler, winning many trophies. She was also a gifted artist and photographer. Many have complimented her on her displays in The Evergreens showcase.

In addition to her sons Louise is survived by a sister Delores Steinberg (Marvin), four step-children, Stephen Dow (Dawn), Bradley Dow (Mary), Leeanne (Alex), and Theodore Dow (Anne). She has also been blessed with twelve grandchildren and one great grandchild. A private graveside service was held on October 16, 2023. A celebration of Louise's life will be held at a later date.
