

Louise Humelsine

March 17, 2023

Louise (Treher) Humelsine, long-time resident of Chambersburg, Pennsylvania, died peacefully on March 17, 2023 at the age of 99. Louise is the wife of the late Thomas H. Humelsine and mother of the late Susan Brindle and Ann McBride.

Louise was a devoted wife, mother, grandmother and great-grandmother. Affectionately known as “Mama”, she was the model matriarch of the family. She dedicated her life to caring for her family and delighted in every visit, conversation, photo, meal, card and re-cap of all activities each and every family member was involved in. Caring for her family defined her life.

Louise and Tom were married for 67 years before Tom’s death in 2012. They moved from Chambersburg to northern Kentucky in 2010 to live near family. Louise continued to reside there until October, 2022 when she moved to Moorestown, New Jersey near to the home of her daughter, Ann. She lived out her last months with courage, grace, and dignity.

Louise was an avid sports fan – and was eager to cheer for any team that the family was associated with. She loved to watch sports on TV and enjoyed playing games with friends in her spare time.

In addition to her daughter Ann, and husband Tom McBride, Louise is survived by her devoted son-in-law, Don Brindle, 5 grandchildren and 8 great-grandchildren. In lieu of flowers, memorial donations may be made to Zion Reformed United Church of Christ, 259 S. Main St., Chambersburg, Pa. or First Presbyterian Church, 101 Bridgeboro Road, Moorestown, NJ 08057.

Cemetery Details

SERVICES & INTERMENT PRIVATE

Tribute Wall

“ Louise Humelsine

October 09, 2023 at 03:30 AM

“ I'm so sorry for your loss!

nancy Linder - March 25, 2023 at 10:26 PM