

Luciano Marshall Robertson

April 5, 2004 - April 14, 2023

Luciano Marshall Robertson, passed away unexpectedly from this world on April 14th 2023 due to a seizure. Lu had just turned 19 on April 5th and was a Cherokee High School Class of 2022 graduate. He was enrolled in Southern New Hampshire University and studying finance. Luciano means in Italian “bringer of light” which he was guilty of with anyone who crossed his path. Lu was a special soul who bravely faced and overcame many challenges due to his diagnosis of epilepsy, not allowing it to hold him back in any way. He was outspoken and strong no matter what challenges he faced. He proudly wore his heart on his sleeve. His laugh was intoxicating and he could talk to anyone.

Everyone who knew Lu, knew he had a wonderful sense of humor, was sarcastic and witty. Lu loved sports, especially playing baseball. He was also an avid football fan. He loved running football statistics and rooting for his favorite team the Eagles. Lu also enjoyed Jeeps and off-roading. He had a passion for cooking with his sisters. He loved Michaela and Briella beyond the role of a big brother.

Lu was loved fiercely by his family and will remain the brightest light in their lives as he lives on in their hearts. He is survived by his mother Jennifer Martin, father James Robertson, sisters Michaela and Briella Robertson, paternal grandmother Donna Stewart and husband Brian Nungesser, maternal grandparents Michael and Kimberly Barone as well as stepparents and step siblings.

Lu may be gone, but he would not have left without one final: Go Eagles!

Tribute Wall

“ Your sisters are freshman In high school now. You always find a way to tell me you are around. I was packing school supplies and your ID fell out of an old notebook. You knew yesterday was hard being at the same field you graduated from. The whole time thinking about the things you would be saying and how proud you were be of the girls. They loved you as much as you loved them. They still included you on everything they make. You left a hole in our hearts but an impact on our lives that will last forever
