“ To My Dear Sweet Mother,

It has been a few weeks now without you to see or talk to. It has been especially hard since Christmas was one of your favorite holidays, how you made it so special for us when we were children. My heart is breaking now that you are gone, but I know you are not suffering anymore. You always told me time heals all wounds, so I will be waiting for my heart to mend in time. I love you always and miss you everyday.

Your loving Daughter, Robin

“ My sweet Aunt Rusty and precious Godmother. You will be so missed. I loved talking to her. We shared a love of art and England. Mostly I loved the stories she shared about my mother when she was young. I always made it a point to take her to lunch when I visited NJ. We enjoyed a lovely ladies day out. The last of her generation in our family. May she rest in peace.

“ My mother, Eleanor Lewis, introduced me to Rusty years ago, as she was one of my mother's neighbors and friend. She enjoyed going out to lunch with her and their "Tea Time" together. They always had a lot to talk about and had a lot in common and supported each other.

They knew each other very well and when my mom's health started to decline last year, Rusty was there giving me good advice. She knew what my mother wanted at the end of her life as she felt the same way. They both passed peacefully at home with their daughters, who loved them very much.

Rest In Peace Rusty. We will all miss you.
