“ It is with great sadness that I learnt of the passing of my cousin Manfred (Mani).

Manfred was significantly older than I am. I was just a little girl when he left the Black Forest and emigrated to the US. With fondness I remember when he later visited my family. These were always very special moments. We all were so happy to know that in “the new world” Mani had met good people and found a new home, a place where he could thrive.

I remember Mani as a courageous and hard working man with a kind heart and an open and optimistic view on life. My thoughts and prayers go out to all those who loved him.

Adieu cousin Mani!

“ Onkel Manfred, you will be greatly missed. You were always “the uncle that lived in America”, and it was always so special to see you. I wish I could turn back time and visit you and the family and reunite over old stories, past memories, discover similarities and celebrate being a family. Rest In Peace Now dear Uncle Manfred. From your niece in Australia.

“ My dear brother Manfred had to go so fast, that I could not even say goodbye. We called a few weeks ago and I was so happy, that he felt better and his voice was like before his pain. Because we lived far from each other, we could not meet very often. I visited him and his family a few years ago and it was a wonderful time. In the presence of Manfred you were always comfortable: he was full of humor, funny, amusing, educated and a good entertainer. He was an excellent cook. I never saw him sullenly or in a bad mood. He didn't have an easy life, but he was very successful in all things, he was doing. He loved the places, he lived as a child and young man, especially the Black Forest and Freiburg, and he wanted to visit all these places and me, but unfortunately he became seriously sick. He was a good human and a loving person. I will miss him so much, but he is always in my heart. In my thoughts I'm with his children and his grandchildren. They lost a so very good Father and Opa. In memory your sister Ulla
