“ Dear family of Margaret Martin:

I was sorry to hear that you lost your dear mother and grandmother. Losing someone you love in death is one of the hardest things that anyone will ever have to deal with. I would like to share a Bible thought where it says to, throw all your anxiety on him, because he cares for you. This scripture makes it clear, that no matter what we are facing God is there for us. Please take time to pray during this time. I hope this brief Bible message has brought you a measure of comfort in this difficult time.

“ My Aunt Peggy was a contemplative and quiet woman who made me feel warm and cozy every time I was in her company. She was the epitome of a lady, but this did not stop her from killing it at a family poker game!. She made the BEST Pineapple Upside Down Cake EVER! She and my Uncle Eddie seemed like Love Birds, and they are a big part of my memories as a child. I am so sorry for my cousins' sadness...
