“ Mrs. Harris was my most beloved senior English teacher at Sterling High School. I enjoyed working with her daughters, Marilyn and Margie at Litterer's on the Ocean City Boardwalk and I had the privilege of teaching her grandson, RJ, in second grade at Baker School in Moorestown. I loved seeing her when she would come to Baker to watch RJ perform in music programs. (he was so talented). As a colleague, I assumed her position as MEA secretary when she decided to give it up, a position I held for 31 years! To me, she epitomized what one would call a highly dedicated, exemplary teacher. She will always maintain a very special place in my heart. My sincere condolences to the family.
