“ Maria was one of a kind. Always kept in touch with the people she cared about and I was blessed to be one of those people. It breaks my heart to hear of her passing and know we will not speak again. She is with Barry in paradise. Kevin and Megan I am so sorry for your loss. ”

“ I worked with Maria for many years in Passport Services. I enjoyed getting to know her - she was fun-loving, smart, down-to-earth and very kind. She was generous with her time and advice and I learned a lot from her. And she was a role model for many aspiring leaders - especially her genuine concern for people and wonderful interpersonal skills. I know she will be dearly missed and send condolences to all who love her. ”

“ Marita and I met in 1963 at Western High School, Washington D.C. We shared a kinship being immigrants, and the various challenges we faced. After high school, we took different paths, kept in touch over the years, even with the distance. She truly excelled in everything she took on. I will definitely miss our chat and knowing she was there. To quote a verse “If tears could build a stairway, and memories a lane, I'd walk right up to heaven and bring you home again.” Sherine ”

“ It is with great sorrow I offer my condolences to Megan, Kevin and Daniel and their families. Maria Teresa, what my cousin. I loved her very much. I first met her when I was 10 and she was 15. She came from Rome Italy. She was the first Roman girl I ever met. She was beautiful and fun and smart. She studied languages at American University and spoke Italian, English French and Spanish. And probably her Roman dialect as well. She had a good career rising to be the Director of the passport office in Philadelphia. But most of all, I remember Teresa, for being a loving mother and grandmother and daughter and sister and cousin. We always shared our stories about family. I remember her strength, courage and dignity. I will truly miss her, Angiolina

“ Kevin and Megan and families,
I am so sorry to hear about your Mom.
She was a good friend and a wonderful person.
We shared many good times. Steve would always call her on Sundays to check to make sure she was ok. Another Angel in the sky over Moorestown.
You all are in my prayers. God Bless!
Stella

Kevin and Megan, I am devastated to hear of this. Maria Teresa was my closest friend in my earliest years in Rome. Our families shared an apartment in Via Buonarroti in the 1950's. Although it was not her favorite thing to do, she would be asked to take me along to run errands for our tailor fathers. She was 11. I was 5. Our families emigrated at different times but we reconnected in Baltimore-Washington with regular Sunday visits in one or the other city; vacations in Wildwood and then when we were both in the Philadelphia area again had occasion to visit with our own growing families. Teresa (as we called her) will always be remembered as the most kind, loving friend and confidant - my only older, wiser and early on, reluctant, big sister. I will miss her.
