“ Dear Cuthbertson Family.

I just learned and and was so sorry to read with a heavy heart of the death of my dear sorority sister and long time friend, Mary. My future husband and Harry "Cuth" and Mary shared many double dates at Cal Berkeley and had such fun. I was honored to be one of her bridesmaid at the time of their wedding. I remember we visiting them when Hank was born before they moved away from the bay area. They came out and visited me some time after my husband Warren had died and we had such a good time talking about our days at Cal. Mary and I corresponded over these may years telling each other of our families, etc.

I had once mentioned to her IF either of you sons new about our correspondence so that I could be notified if something were to happen. Apparently not, so I do regret that I'm sending you my deepest and heartfelt sympathy rather late.

I'm sure you will cherish and have fond memories of good times past.

Sincerely, Doriel Parkinson

“ The front pew of Trinity Episcopal Church will be missing a loyal servant of God without Mary Cuthbertson. It was void when Harry died, but there should be a placque there now as I can see, for many years, the Cuthbertsons sitting there. Not only was Mary a devout Christian, but a long time participant in the Moorestown Cooper Hospital Auxiliary were she kept the books right to the penny. And always a smile and never a complainer. Mary you set the example for many, and I for one, will miss you very much.

“ Dear Cuthbertson family:

I wish to convey my sincerest condolences to your entire family. Losing a loved one in death is one of the hardest things that anyone will ever have to deal with. There is a great hope held out to us for the future because God promises to bring those we lost back to life by means of a resurrection to a paradise earth, where sickness and death will be no more. I hope this brief message will bring you a measure of comfort in this difficult time.
