“ Matt floored me with his intelligence, kindness and fairness to others, and his inspirational spirit and strength. I'm honored to call Matt my friend! A guy whom I could share great dialogue with on just about any topic - and we did - and always looking at how to make things better for all. Like everyone, there's no such thing as perfection. However, Matt saw life as a journey and one that if you cared and paid attention to, you could continue to grow as a person, man, husband, friend and so much more. He wasn't afraid to explore new areas and ideas and was comfortable and confident enough to do this with class and intellect. I will miss Matt very much - already do. He is a dear friend whose spirit will live on through those he touched. God Bless Matt and to your incredible friend and wife, Elisa...

“ It was very apparent from our first meeting that Matt and Elisa had a powerful loving relationship. Elisa grew up next door and we are close to her family. Our observations have always been validated from reports from her family of the loving caring life they both created. Our hearts and thoughts are with Elisa and her family. ”

“ I remember meeting Matt for the first time in 2005 when we worked in the marketing department together, and he immediately struck me as such a quiet, gentle man. Shortly afterwards, I remember him bringing Elisa into the office to meet Ed Pierce and I, and it was evident how much Matt loved her because he was just bubbling over with happiness and more animated than I ever saw him.

I know he is going to be greatly missed at ARI, and I can't even begin to imagine how difficult and painful this loss is for Matt's family, and especially Elisa. My heart aches for all of you.

Steve and I met Matthew and Elisa when they moved into our neighborhood. We became fast friends and had game nights. Matt would always win the big money at Texas Hold'em. We will cherish the nights we spent together with Elisa and Matthew. We did more laughing, talking and eating than playing games. The food and drink was always the best.

Matthew we love you and will hold memories of you in our hearts forever. You are our angel now. xoxo

“ Remembered Joy
Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free!
I follow the plan God laid for me.
I saw His face, I heard His call,
I took His hand and left it all...
I could not stay another day,
To love, to laugh, to work or play;
Tasks left undone must stay that way.
And if my parting has left a void,
Then fill it with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss...
Ah yes, these things I, too, shall miss.
My life's been full, I've savoured much:
Good times, good friends, a loved-one's touch.
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief—
Don't shorten yours with undue grief.
Be not burdened with tears of sorrow,
Enjoy the sunshine of the morrow.
