“ My grandfather, Dah, was one of the wisest, most cunning, sociable, kind, welcoming, humorously witty, and supportive people I have come to know. My sister, his grand daughter, Maggie Zelinka wrote an amazing, that summarized the great family man he was. I hope it is shared. I however, never really reveal what I feel sometimes, and when Dah had his first hospital trip, I was very distraught. I did not realize how much I cared for my wild driving grandfather. He was the moon in my life. A constant. Although I wouldn't see him all the time (especially now at college) I knew he was there. When it became apparent that he had moved on, the sky seemed a little darker without his bright smile and booming laugh (the greatest seal of approval a joke could get), but it was when his light dimmed, that others grew bright. All the stars that surrounded him shown burning with his memory, and growing from his influence. Thank you to all that came to support the family, a friend, and a loved one. Thank you for your prayers thoughts and comfort. Thank you for keeping the memory of this amazing man alive and bright, just as he would have wanted.

“ So sorry for your lost. I remember the whole Sanyour gang in a travel home Park in our drive way. I remember Buddy and Terry all of you kids having the best time. I was blessed to have had a cousin like Buddy. He will be truly miss. Your dad always reminded me of your grandpa, my dad's brother, Uncle Mike. He at least with the great ones in Heaven!! Your cousin, Adel Sanyour Cumber

“ I had the pleasure of knowing Dah through my bestfriend, Mike Zelinka. Dah was always so warm and inviting to friends of Mike. I could always count on him for a smile and a genuine conversation. I know he is looking down from heaven on the Zelinka's and thinking how proud he is to have such amazing children and grandchildren. I'll be thinking about and praying for family and friends of Dah today and always!

“ Mike's brief time with the Pine Barons was special to us and evidently to Mike as well. He would get so enthusiastic about the music he would cry, "Ya-HOOOO!" We are grateful for the time he had with us. Clearly music was an important part of his life, and some of his spirit rubbed off on us. Bruce Barker, president, Pine Barons chorus, BHS

“ Dear Ned, Flo, and all of the lovely Sanyour family, Julie and I are devastated to learn this terribly sad news. Mike was my dad's oldest and best friend and was equally beloved by Julie's grandfather Walt, and all the Maahs family. I treasure the memories of early morning drives with my dad and yours out into the cold, damp Delaware fields and canals for duck and goose hunting. I felt privileged to drive Mike to Upham Downs meetings in the last several years; we would be sure to stop at the local places for a pizza and some beer to bring. Mike will remain inimitable. He was endlessly kind and boundlessly joyful, a pleasure to be around. A great storyteller, I still can picture him on his visits to Japan making the acquaintances of the Subaru folks and developing those relationships into positive, long-lasting ventures. He was also steadfastly supportive through the deaths of Rob, Amy, and Dad, for which we will ever be grateful. Mike loved his life, his career, your mother, and you very much and was always so proud when he spoke of you. The only kindness through the grief of his passing is the joyful expectation of his final reunion with Terry. We are so sorry for your loss and hope that these memories will help to ease the soreness in your hearts over time.

-With our deepest sympathies,
Julie and Chris Van Sciver

“ They say to achieve greatness, you must leave this world a better place than when you arrived. Uncle Buddy was one of the greatest men I have even known. To me, the impressions he left on this world are like the footsteps on the moon. From the stories he told, which took every listener to a new and enchanted place, to the children he raised, his blessings surround everyone around them. He treated everyone as a friend, and would talk to everyone as if they were indeed a long lost friend he hadn't seen in ages. His life and what he has left behind are a testament to how wonderful a human he truly is.

To the incredible Uncle Buddy and the entire family, I love you, I always have and I will cherish the memories of your him for the rest of my days! I am blessed to have known him my whole life, as I know you are too.

From the Bouzek family to yours, God Bless and God Speed! Uncle Buddy!
