“ Nick gave me my first job as a teenager at the Lo-Mas Pharmacy in Larchmont. I think that was back in 1985. He taught me a lot and was a wonderful boss. I am sorry to hear of his passing and my thoughts are with your family.

“ *To the family of Nicholas A. Masino:
The administration, staff and especially the residents of CEC's Coleman and Hoffman Halls in Philadelphia, wish to extend our heartfelt sympathies to you and loved ones.
Nick and Nora Williams-Jones, Jean Williams-Jones, John and the dedicated staff at Port Richmond Pharmacy have been instrumental in providing medications to our residents regardless of their ability to pay. In many cases because of Nick and John's dedication to serving others, lives have been saved.
Please know that we are praying for you and that Nick's place in heaven was assured long before the 17th of September.

“ To Mrs. Anita Masino and Family, John and the Family at Port Richmond Pharmacy

"May the work I've Done Speak For Me" from the spiritual of the same title

The words of this spiritual epitomize the man that Nicholas was. His legacy is one of service, not only to those who utilized his services at the Pharmacy but to everyone he came in contact with. I thank you for sharing him with us. We are placed her on earth to be of service not only to our family and loved ones but to others. Nick was a true servant.. I will always be indebted to Nick, John and the rest of my "friends" at Port Richmond Pharmacy for how they helped me take care of my late husband Walt.

There is no need for a pharmacist in heaven but I am sure Nick has a new job, that of an Angel, watching over those he loved and the people he so diligently served here on earth.

God's peace and mercy be upon you as you you traverse this painful time in your lives. Nora Williams-Jones and family

“ As a close friend of the family I'd like to mention how Nicholas was there for our medical team when we landed in Haiti as one the first responders after the EarthQuake. His generosity enabled our team to bring needed medications very early into the disaster. Special thanks to Nicholas and My Deepest Sympathy to his family. Nancy Cadet

“ At the Masino reunion, there were so many favorite son comments made about Nick. I wish I had known him better. Unfortunately,we were never living close enough . My best memories are of Mildred and John and their great family. We all shared a day at our pool when happiness was the theme!

My love to all my dear cousins.. Our family priest,Father Joe Ricchini, will be saying Memorial Masses for Nick.

Grief is difficult share -- it is so very personal. Just know that my thoughts and prayers are with the family.

God bless,

“ *To My Cousin Nick,
I guess heaven was needing a hero, Somebody just like you. Brave enough to stand up for what you believe and follow it through. When i try to make it make sense in my mind, the only conclusion I come to is that heaven was needing a hero like YOU.
To the Whole Masino Family,
Please know my prayers are with you during this tragic time. Be good, kind & supportive of each other. Cherish the time you have together & love each other with the same love that Nick had for all of you.
My Loving thoughts ~ Bye for now ~

“ To my #1 Cousin !
You gave me my 1st job at Kingston Pharmacy. You were my super-hero Coach of our Cubs softball team. You brought middle school crushes to all my best girl friends. Nick, you were always that big guy with a huge heart! It's so true when they say, "life's too short". I regret now that my boys never got to know you.....God took you away from us too soon along with Ian, & of course, mom. And although we are all saddened by your loss, there's a certain happiness to know that you're reunited again with mom, & all our other loved ones. Nick, thanks for all the great memories !!!Bye for now.....
