“ Dear Charles and family:

Really sad to read about Norma Jean. It's been many, many years since you left Ambler, but I still remember the good times at your home on Loch Alsh Avenue. Arch passed away in 2002 and I am still here in the house since 1951.....Thinking of you and wishing peace to you and your family.

*Fondly,

“ Charles and Sons, I fondly remember Norma Jean when I lived in Delran (at the time my name was Lois Wilewski - 1969 - 70's) I recall Norma Jean as a gracious hostess and a lovely human being. Your parties in the basement, that was outfitted like a ship, were a hoot and talked about by all.

When I remarried to Bill Rose, brother of Herb Rose, who worked at Maltbie Enterprises, Bill and I were invited to your private island in Maryland along with other railroad fans.

Norma Jean could not have been more welcoming, humorous as well as a good sport by having so many visitors invade your special sanctuary.

We created wonderful memories that sunny day.

My prayers are with you and Norma Jean.
