“ I have just learned of Paul's passing so many years later. Paul and Shi lived next door to my family when I was a teenager and I have such fond memories of him. He was such a caring, hard working and funny man. We shared a love of dogs and would I often take care of Dawn, the yellow lab he had at the time. Paul was also a great friend to my parents and even after we moved away they remained great friends. After learning of his passing I dug out some pictures of our time in Moorestown any many included Paul and Shi. One in particular made me smile, it's Paul doing a cannon-ball dive into our pool, he was such a goof! God Bless Paul.
