Otilie “Otti” Helene Czossek
February 12, 1924 - June 6, 2018

Otilie “Otti” Helene Czossek was born to Ludwig and Wilhelmina Samulowitz on February 12, 1924, in Neidenburg, Germany (East Prussia). She was the fifth of eight children: Frieda, Berta, Marta, Guste, Otti, Walter, Edith, and Ali. As a young woman, she attended Secretarial School and developed a love for working with numbers. In 1949, Otti married Alfred Czossek and they lived together in Germany, first in Bohmte, then in Hooksiel, a fishing village on the North Sea. In May of 1956, together with their two children, Christel and Eckard, they left their homeland and set sail for a new life in America. This was a bold and courageous move for Otti, as she was leaving her family and community behind. Alfred, Otti, and their children arrived in Moorestown, New Jersey, with two suitcases, beloved photos, a bedroom set, a treadle sewing machine, and the will to thrive. The Episcopal Church on Main Street housed them for the first several years, before they purchased a house on Evergreen Drive. This became the home in which Otti raised her children, welcomed her grandchildren, hosted friends, and lived until she passed.

Otti was able to put her knowledge of banking to work at the Burlington County Trust Company, now Wells Fargo, in the center of Moorestown. Her proficiency with numbers led her to the Comptroller’s Office where she manually reconciled the bank's General Ledger on a daily basis. She held her position for 25 years until she retired in 1986. Decades later, she fondly spoke of her love for resolving discrepancies, delivering the President's daily report on-time at 10am, and never missing a cent.

Otti's inherent curiosity and thirst for knowledge was on display every morning as she read the newspaper and consistently perused the World Book Encyclopedia for a better understanding of various topics. Moved by an insatiable wanderlust, she traveled all over the world to explore new places, experience different cultures, and visit with family. In fact, at eight-six years old, she and her beloved friend, Ernst, even road-tripped cross-country from California to New Jersey! Locally, she built a community of friends wherever she went, including the Germania Männerchor and her bowling league. Otti was genuinely interested in people and their well-being, while delighting in sharing her playful nature.

Otti loved living in Moorestown, which served as the home to her growing family: Christel married Andrew and welcomed Stewart, Eric, and David into the world; Eckard married Sandy and the family grew again with the arrival of Sommer. Her grandchildren and their spouses, Kendra and Audrey, her great-grandchildren, Mackenzie and Luke, and the Hartnett sisters, Allison, Isabella, and Lauren, affectionately called her "Oma". She made it known to them that games are meant to be played, that good food is central to sharing love with family and friends, and that her "door is always open."

One pillar of Otti's individual strength was her quiet and steadfast faith. Over her lifetime, Otti endured many challenges and tragedies, particularly during World War II. These experiences, combined with her life's blessings, were transformed into an unfaltering, positive personal philosophy that "life is beautiful". This was apparent to friends and family who often commented: "I have never heard her complain." Otti was a compassionate, loving, calm, and grateful woman.

Oma, you were beautiful. You brought light into our lives every day! We will miss you, always.

“ I spent many nights playing Skat with Alfred & Ottie next door to our house with them & I've missed it every day since. I remember one night when they started speaking in German to each other — I knew enough of what the said & told them — IN GERMAN to STOP CHEATING!!! They stopped cold, their faces red, they laughed & looked at me & said “HOW did you know??? We just taught you how to play this game & you keep winning so we HAD to find a way for us not to look so bad but you caught us!!!” We all broke out laughing but they never cheated again!!! 😊 🙏 🙏 🙏 I miss them both soooo much. They were truly a Blessing in my life when I was growing up. Bless them both. 🙏❤️❤️❤️🙏🙏🙏 Lori Kuhlwind

“ Although we will not be able to attend Oma's services, please know that our thoughts and prayers are with her large and loving family at this difficult time. Oma was one of a kind. Everyone was welcome and loved in her home and in her life. Her joie de vivre was infectious and knew no bounds. Her strength and energy were awe-inspiring. We are all blessed to have had her in our lives. May God bless her and all of her loving family.
