“ After 93 years on this earth, Pop has gone to join his parents, brother, and sister in the hereafter. He passed peacefully and I was glad to have been there with him. Earlier in the week we had spoken by phone and I related that I was returning not knowing he would be in the hospital when I arrived. He waited for us and his family to arrive or contact him and then moved on into the next life. While I will miss our conversation's I'm happy that he no longer suffers. Having served in WWII, met Mom while doing so, married and lived a good life. He was the last of his family contemporaries, not understanding that as the oldest he could out live them all.

Rest well Pop, my teacher, Father, and mentor. I will miss you!

“ *Ralph (Poppy) taught me how do do basic electric work with encouraging words such as "You have to be smarter than what you are working on",
He also showed through his actions patience, honor, and how to make a cigar last forever.
Poppy was my father-in-law and my friend.
Rest easy Poppy*
