“ One of the things Brian and I new about Ray was that he liked to have parties! He was disappointed he couldn't have one a year ago in the winter and wanted to have one about this time last year even though he was not well and he couldn't do the things he normally did to get ready for it. What really surprised me was when he said he and Ruth wanted to go ahead with it and that we should celebrate my birthday also because my birthday was 2 days later!! I never would have expected him to remember that and I was very touched. I saw a side of Ray I hadn't seen before. May he rest in peace.

“ Ray listened to me . Everyday I was at their house I felt normal and loved. He challenged me in my thoughts . He cared and made me feel like I mattered. I considered him my dad in many regards.

“ My most treasured memory of Ray was when he told me I could call him Dad. I love and miss you, Dad. Until we meet again...Love, Miles
