

Rita M Volpe

March 27, 2012

Rita Volpe (nee Christy) of Moorestown, NJ passed away Tuesday, March 27, 2012 peacefully in the loving company of her immediate family. She was 82. Born and raised in South Philadelphia, Rita was proud of her Italian heritage. She married her one true love, Harry before moving “over the bridge” to South Jersey. It was here that she delighted in raising her three children, and cherished time with her family. True to her South Philadelphia roots, Rita had a passion for cooking, particularly traditional Italian fare. A meal could become an all day event for Rita, between gathering the ingredients, preparing the meal, and ultimately sharing the meals with friends and family. No one could deny Rita made the best gravy and meatballs, just make sure it was served with the “good rolls”. In the later years of Rita’s life, her grandchildren provided her with much joy and happiness. Time spent with “Mom-mom” was always fun. Her grandchildren have many wonderful memories of these fun times. Rita’s passing has left a sorrowful void in all the lives she touched, particularly those of her family and friends. She will be greatly missed. She is survived by her husband of 53 years, Harry; her loving children Amy (Gregory) MacMichael, Lori (Richard) Osler, and Joseph Volpe; her adored grandchildren Stephen and Paul MacMichael, and Christy and

Brendan Osler. Her Funeral Mass will be held Monday, April 2 at 10:30 AM at Church of Our Lady of Good Counsel, 42 West Main Street, Moorestown. In lieu of flowers, please consider donations to The Samaritan Inpatient Hospice Center at Virtua Memorial, 5 Eves Drive, Marlton, NJ 08054..
