“ To The Family of Mr.Robert E. Cleaver,

My deepest sympathy goes out to your family. Losing someone you love in death is one of the hardest things that anyone will ever have to deal with. The Bible is able to speak consolingly to those who are experiencing grief and its promises are faithful and true. Psalms 55:22 say “throw your burden on God, and he will sustain you....”. This Scripture makes it clear, that no matter what we are facing God is there to help us get through it. I pray the love of God enfolds you during your journey through the grief process. My hope is that the Bible’s promise bring you a measure of comfort during this difficult time and may the outpouring of love surrounding you, comfort you.

*Sincerely
Gladys Dickson*

“ My name is Alvin Roberts. I'm a member of the Cancer Support Group once chaired by "Bob". His knowledge and keep looking forward attitude was always a positive motivator for me to come to the meetings every third Tuesday and share thoughts and learn about our conditions to keeps hope alive and fellowship together, He will be missed all hear who knew him. God bless you family.

“ It was sad news to hear of the passing of such a fine gentle man. We volunteered with Bob at the Air Victory Museum and send our deepest sympathies to his family members. The heavens have a true gentleman in residence now. From the Waters family

“ I was saddened to read of the loss of your loved one. When we lose our loved one in death it is the most difficult time in our life. However, there is loving comfort in Psalms 55:22 to “throw your burden on God and he will sustain you..” Yes, no matter what we are facing God is there to help us get through it. May you continue to have the love and support from family and friends. I sincerely hope that this Bible message brings you a measure of comfort during this difficult time.
