“ My family lived just a few doors from the DiPompo's and I spent many a happy childhood hour with my lifelong friend Barbara and her family. So many of my memories include Mr. DiPompo's smiling face. He was the kindest man and most gentle soul anyone could ever hope to call Dad. I remember looking forward to the hours Barb and I would spend doing our homework at their kitchen table next to the cabinet he kept well stocked with treats! I was always included in their extended family gatherings complete with cheek- pinching aunts and lots of fun cousins. Christmas Day was a particular favorite of mine and to this day I still make pizelles, now part of my own family's tradition.

One thing we know for sure, Mr. DiPompo lived a life that always had him on the fast track to heaven. May he rest there in well-deserved peace.

*With Love and Deepest Sympathy,

“ My dad, Bill Friel worked with Mr Dipompo many years ago as my dad passed away at the young age of 46 years old in 1977 when they were employed by Oscar Mayer.

As busy as my dad was with 6 kids and church and community responsibilities at the time, the people with whom he worked were extremely important in his life. People like Bob Dipompo, Charlie Johnson and Jack Bohannon were names as a kid, I well knew and our families spent time together, especially in our younger years, (say 1963 to 1966 or so) .I do believe we have a family film taken about 1964, when my mom and Dad had a housewarming party and Bob and Ann and many Oscar Mayer coworkers are seen in this film. I am a visiting nurse in South Philadelphia and have been for many years and as such have actually have cared for a few of the old Oscar Mayer employees from that time. Condolences on your family.s loss. Such a great generation passing on is an occasion very worth reminiscing ! Karen Friel
