“ Dear Kessler family:

I wish to convey my sincerest condolences to your entire family. Losing a loved one in death is one of the hardest things that anyone will ever have to deal with. There is a great hope held out to us for the future because God promises to bring those we lost back to life by means of a resurrection to a paradise earth, where sickness and death will be no more. I hope this brief message will bring you a measure of comfort in this difficult time.

“ Bob and Sylvia opened their home and backyard every Memorial Day and Labor Day. Our summers began and ended with wonderful picnic fellowship. Bob always sang with a smile. Now he is back in Sylvia's arms in heaven. Great man with whom I had the pleasure of knowing. Now he sees the face of his Lord! Blessings to his girls!

“ Sorry to hear of Bob's passing. Always a kind man with a gracious smile. Memories of years ago spent at their house having dinner and wonderful conversation. Prayers for him and the girls but know he's now with Sylvia.
