

Robert D Merrick

December 27, 2017

Merrick, Robert DeWitt on Dec 27, 2017, age 90, of the Evergreens of Moorestown, NJ, formerly of Westfield, NJ. Devoted husband of the late Alice (nee Buck). Dedicated father of Doug Merrick, Sue Ehrhardt, Bill Merrick and Judy Dumont. Loving grandfather of ten grandchildren and one great granddaughter. Bob proudly served in the US Army at the end of WWII. He graduated from Purdue University with a BS in Metallurgical Engineering and from the Newark College of Engineering with a MS in Chemical Engineering, while working at Exxon. Bob spent his career with Exxon where he worked in a variety of technical and managerial roles, but contributed primarily as a corrosion specialist across the globe for the R&D organization. He enjoyed exploring other cultures while living in various countries with his family and traveling with Alice. Bob was also an avid woodworker and enjoyed fly fishing. Interment was at the Graceland Memorial Park, Kenilworth, NJ. In lieu of flowers please consider a memorial contribution to the National Parkinson's Foundation or the American Parkinson Disease Association.
