“ "Mr Nick" as he was affectionately called was my next-door neighbor in Pennsauken as long as I was alive. He and Adeline were one of the original buyers of the small development in the little known "Penns Hills" section off of Cove rd. I have many happy memories growing up there, with Bob and Adeline, they were a little older than my parents so they became like a Aunt & Uncle to me and my sisters. Truly an outdoorsman, he could always be found out and around the house. Many times he would be in the backyard working and I would go over much like "Dennis the Menace". I never saw him angry or frustrated, he always made time for me and my sisters. Bob was always willing to lend a hand for anything, especially trimming trees, gardening issues and even shoveling snow! Truly an exceptional neighbor and a good friend, he will be sorely missed.
