

Robyn T. Kurdyla

October 6, 1955 - September 7, 2025

Robyn Theresa Kurdyla (née Ekelburg), age 69, passed away peacefully on September 7, 2025, at her home in Moorestown, New Jersey.

Born on October 6, 1955, in Mt. Holly, New Jersey, Robyn was a proud graduate of Burlington High School, Class of 1973. Their early years in New Jersey laid the foundation for a life marked by dedication to family.

Robyn worked for many years at ShopRite in Lumberton, New Jersey. It was there that she met her husband, Gregory Kurdyla. Their bond grew into a loving marriage that spanned sixteen years and brought together a devoted family.

Robyn is survived by her husband, Gregory Kurdyla; children, Daniel Kurdyla, Adam Kurdyla, and Christian Kurdyla; her sister, Susan Antonucci; and her brother, Scott Ekelburg. Robyn also leaves behind nine cherished grandchildren who brought immense joy to her life.

She was preceded in death by her parents, Patricia Pilling Ekelburg and Raymond Ekelburg.

A passionate reader with an eye for hidden treasures, Robyn found great enjoyment in exploring flea markets and thrift shops. These simple pleasures reflected their appreciation for stories—both written and lived—and the beauty found in everyday moments.

As per Robyn wishes no service will be held. Interment will be private .

In lieu of Fowers a memorial contribution in her name may be made to the Friends of BC Animal Shelter, 3111 Route 38, Suite 11 #238 Mount Laurel, NJ 08054 or online at <https://friendsofbcas.org/support/donate/>.
