“ Erin, I just discovered that Russell passed on in 2017. Although I did not stay in much contact with Russell, he was someone that had a lasting effect on our friendship. I worked with Russell in the mid 80's when we were selling office equipment together. When I left that industry, I believe he met you shortly thereafter. I remember coming to your home in Moorestown several times after you and Russell had your first two sons. We drifted apart because of my life's path and his life's path. That being said, I will never forget him. As you know so well, he was one of a kind and I was fortunate enough to cross his path of life. Although this message is 6 years late, please know that I was very sad to hear of his passing for you and the boys. God bless you all and please accept my extended condolences.

“ Russell, my best memories at South Valley, Flying Moose Lodge, and MHS always involved you. Your Webster's New (1977) Collegiate Dictionary sits in front of my desk as I type this --- funny, it's the only Bar Mitzvah gift that I seem to still have, or remember....
What a truly beautiful and gentle soul you have, Russell.

“ Very sad to hear of Russell's passing. Funny, kind, happy. Wearing penny loafers with wheat pennies. We went to high school together. Were in the same homeroom and latin classes. He was my scoring buddy for our weekly latin vocabulary quiz and was generous on the grading! Such good memories. Requiesce in pace Russell.

“ Erin and family I am so sorry to learn of Russ's passing. Ted informed me last week of this sad day. I worked with Russ for a lot of years at Smith Barney. We kept in contact for some time after I left Smith Barney..I tried at one time to bring him in with me at Janney Montgomery but it was my loss not being able to do so. When ever we were together he always had a smile on his face and would make me laugh. His attitude on life was so uplifting and positive that he was always a joy to be around. I am so sorry that no one informed what he was going through. My prayers are with you all and I will miss not being able to see his smiling face one more time. God Bless you and all boys..Sadly Larry Ergood

“ Nice save, Keep!” The cheerful praise from the sideline was, more often than not, directed at the OPPOSING team’s goalie. Unconventional perhaps, to applaud one’s opponent in the heat of competition, but positivity and an awareness of the true spirit of the game can be found on page one of the Russell Peck playbook.

The Moorestown community was shaken by the passing of Russell Peck, taken from his family too soon. His quick wit, positive energy, and cheerful presence will be dearly missed by so many. While the loss makes one want to shake a fist at the sky, stopping to consider his legacy can affirm one’s faith. Blessings are evident in the gentlemen the Pecks have raised, and comfort may be found in the fact that whether Moorestown wins the state championship or not, the Peck boys won the parent lottery.

“ I am so saddened by Russell's loss. Our time together and the memories made while at W & L are numerous and priceless. The road trips, the musical excursions in the "dungeon", the talks and times and experiences we shared as frat house roommates at 110 W. Preston Street. He will always hold a special place in my heart. My deepest of sympathy. ”
