“ I am so sorry to lose my beautiful friend Sandy. I was so fortunate to reconnect with her this past year. She was able to visit with me a few times by phone. We were able to play catch up a little on past and present. We kept in contact by messenger over the last few months. Sandy shared pictures of her beautiful girls and grandchildren, who she was so very proud of. I wish we could have been able to meet and hug each other one last time. I have so many great memories of Sandy, especially her beautiful smile and great laugh, and her family. I am glad that she is no longer in pain. My Condolences and Love to all of her family. I will miss her, but I know she will be smiling down on all of us.

May the Perpetual Light Shine Upon You.

Love Ya Girl xxxooo

“ Don, I am truly sorry for your loss. Sandy was such a loving and caring person with the greatest smile. A beautiful Christian woman through and through. When I would visit her at home, even in her pain she continued to smile and was always glad to see me. For those closest to Sandy she will be sadly missed. But we all can rejoice now that she is in the presence of Jesus. Sincerely Dave Montagano

“ I will forever cherish the memory of Sandra decorating for Easton and London's open house. It was the last time I saw her. She was busy putting all of her personal touches on everything. She had such a special way about her and was a beautiful lady inside and out. I am praying for strength for Gram, Kristine, Leslie and their families today and the days that follow❤️❤️

I was searching the internet for evidence of my cousin Sandy (Ford) after reading her condolence/memory written for my cousin Rosie (Hemminger) Yelenik on December 3, 2017. I have not seen nor visited with Sandy in decades. I was the fourth oldest in our large extended family. Cousins Judy Kehl, Rosie, and Sandy were older than me. With Sandy's passing, I become the eldest of our sprawling childhood family.

I did not know of Sandy's passing until reading her obituary on this day. I extend heartfelt condolences to Sandy's family. I was proud to claim her as my cousin in the high school that we both attended--Kearsley. She was a senior when I was a freshman.

The extended family celebrations of our youth were plentiful, raucous, filled with fun, food, and laughter. Cousins were like brothers and sisters.

I have taken on the responsibility of family genealogist along with my cousin Joann. I would like very much to make contact with Sandy's New Jersey family to discover some of the details of her life there. My email address is hcford1185@gmail.com; my home phone number is 810-233-8888.

Again, sincere condolences to her family from a long lost cousin.

“Sandy was such a sweet person to talk with. Her smile made you like her from the start. I loved how she would look at Don and glo just talking about him. Conrad and I would see them each week at Solid Rock Baptist Church. Her smile was contagious. I know she will truly be missed by her family and her husband. I love the promise from God's word that tells us we will meet again soon in Heaven. Don, our love goes out to you. Stay strong and keep the memories you have of your marriage and time together forever in your heart! Love, Cousin Margie and Conrad

“ After only having been in Sandy's company a few times, her beautiful heart, easy grace and pleasant humor were a joy to behold.

May all her friends and extended family take comfort in having had the privilege of sharing life with Sandy.

“ There are not many people who you immediately feel comfortable around and can tell that they are an honest and sincere person. Sandy was one of these people. From the few times I saw her at family events with my cousin Donald, I really enjoyed talking to her and getting to know her. What a wonderful person. My sincere condolences to Donald and the entire extended family.

We met Don and Sandy at church about five years ago, they sat next to me and my wife Debbie. What a great smile she had and always a warm hug for all. She loved the Lord and would tell you to have a blessed day. We shall miss her but we will all be together some day.

I first "met" Sandy through my brother Lawrence. He was thoroughly charmed by her! I regret not living closer and having more opportunity than only one time I was in Jersey to enjoy Sandy's sweet and kind presence. To my cousin Don and Sandy's extended family, I hope you are comforted knowing Sandy was a blessing to so many of us and most of all, knowing she is with her God.
