

Seiji H Moriuchi

June 30, 2014

Seiji Harold Moriuchi

Moriuchi, Seiji H., age 35, of Moorestown, NJ, died suddenly, but peacefully in his sleep on Monday, June 30, 2014. Son of Fred and Caroline (née Brunt) Moriuchi, Seiji was born on Father's day and was a longtime resident of Moorestown. He grew up on the family farm off of Borton Landing Road, graduated Moorestown Friends School in 1998 and attended college.

As a student at Moorestown Friends School (MFS) he developed integrity and made life-long friends. He played soccer, basketball and baseball at MFS and was captain of both the baseball and soccer teams. In addition, Seiji received the Herm McGee Award which is given to the male and female athletes who have made the most significant contribution to MFS athletics during the school year.

After attending college, Seiji returned home to pursue his life's work on the family farm; his passion was farming. He had a gift for raising produce like his paternal great grandfather, Heijiro Moriuchi, and maternal grandmother, Janet Brunt. He started working on the farm as a little boy and as the owner of M&M Farm, Garden and Mulch worked side-by-side with his father, Fred Moriuchi. They raised and sold tens of thousands of mums, over 100,000 cubic yards of mulch and countless fruits and vegetables. More importantly, Seiji forged hundreds of meaningful relationships with employees, customers and suppliers. Seiji could meet people from every walk of life and make them feel comfortable.

In the off-season, Seiji assisted Doug Fitzgerald with his property management company and, over the last seven years, served as the Assistant Boys Varsity Basketball Coach to Denny Earl, Ryan Winkelspecht and Colin Haynes. As a coach he was able to impact the lives of many young scholar athletes at MFS. Several of these young men he coached would work on the farm growing annual and perennial flowers and tending the farm market.

Seiji H. Moriuchi is survived by his parents Fred and Caroline (née Brunt) Moriuchi. Brothers Takashi (Mey-Yen) Moriuchi and Naoji (Michelle) Moriuchi and Sister Akemi Moriuchi. Also surviving are his nephew Kenji and nieces Miya, Mina and Naomi. Several Aunts, Uncles, Cousins and grandmother, Yuri Moriuchi.

He is predeceased by his loving grandparents T. Bayard Brunt, Jr. & Janet W. Brunt and Takashi Moriuchi.

Visitation Friday Eve, July 11, 2014 from 6-8 pm at the Lewis Funeral Home, 78 E. Main St., Moorestown, NJ. Memorial service 10:30 am on Saturday, July 12, 2014 at the Moorestown Meeting House, 118 E. Main St., Moorestown, NJ. Interment Friends Cemetery, Moorestown, NJ.

In lieu of flowers, the family requests that memorial contributions be made to the Seiji Moriuchi Scholarship at Moorestown Friends School, 110 E. Main St. Moorestown, NJ 08057.

“ So many ways to remember Seiji, as a student, coach, entrepreneur, and friend but they all make up a fine young man. Fred and Caroline your heart is heavy, but you and your entire family will be in our hearts. What a fantastic person Seiji was and that smile lit up a room.

“ As a member of the Moorestown Friends community for fifteen years the Moriuchi family's welcoming presence at every MFS activity was always heartwarming! It is with deepest sadness that we offer our condolences for the loss of your dearly beloved son Seiji! He was a light in Our daughter Ashley's life and it is with great sadness that we offer our prayers to you and your family during this time of loss and confusion. Seiji will be greatly missed by so many but his charm and peaceful supportive nature will be remembered by a school community who adored him. May God hold him in his arms and may he have eternal peace.

“ Remember Seiji as he would walk thru the family packing house. Big bright smile, great conversation, he enjoyed the art of making people smile along with him. You will be missed by all the many lives you graciously touched. Be at peace with God..... sorrowfully,

“ I am deeply saddened to hear of the untimely passing of Seji, a basketball teammate of mine while at Moorestown Friends, and the first person I met upon entering the school in Mr. McNally's 10th grade Advisory. In my years knowing Seji, I've never heard anyone have anything negative to say about him as he truly was one of the most positive and upbeat people I've ever met. I'm sure I'm not the only one from high school that remembers him sauntering down the hallway or him yelling on the soccer fields and joking with friends. I'm also certain Seji turned out to be a well regarded and respected man and I'm equally sure he will be sorely missed. Rest peacefully Seji.

“ My Seiji Boy xoxo His chubby cheeks, overbite, golden curls & smile stole my heart 34 years ago. This is so much harder to understand & accept. And I speak from experience having lost both of my parents, my nanny & godfather. This boy loved to laugh. And eat. He had a great love of animals & the earth. Guess that Seiji applse didn't fall far from the Freddie/Tak tree, no pun intended. I am sad to my very core and continue to cry daily over this very huge void in so many lives. My mother fell in love w/him the 1st time I took him over to swim in our pool. She just melted everytime he jumped into the pool & belly laughed. I know she's happy to see him again. I know in my heart she's taking very good care of him. I hope I find out soon, what very important job God has in heaven for this young man, to have called him home so unexpectedly. I need to know, to make this more acceptable. My heart breaks for Caroline & Fred. Takashi & Naoji and their families. Akemi, you are such a lucky girl to have these beautiful, kind upstanding members of society, to call brother. I will continue to keep my memories & feelings close to my heart. And continue to heal. They say 'time heals all wounds'. My mom's been gone 24 years. I'll let you know in 24 more years. Sleep well my Seiji Boy. And know I loved you as much as if you were my very own. Always, Eileena xoxo
