“ it was approx 25 years ago when Seth completed a wonderful painting which featured a golf outing on what seemed to be a very old beautiful golf course. perhaps it was St. Andrews in Scotland. that was the same time we moved into a new home. Sallie and Steven presented us with that piece of art and we have displayed it and enjoyed it ever since. when we walk by it, which is often, we are reminded of that 'house warming gift' and of the wonderful artistic talent of Seth who created it. as much as we have always enjoyed it we will treasure it now.
it is with a heavy heart that we share this with Sallie and Steve along with our love and support during this most difficult time
