“ " Happy Birthday Shayla, What a party you must have had in heaven. My daughter Ashley gave me a sock monkey for my Valentine's Day in honor of you. I felt close to you. Savannah, you and your mom mean alot to me. ever since the day you drew me up the pattern of the dress you wanted me to make for you. I know this has truly been a struggle for you and your mom. But what I think of when I think of the three of you is what memories you three must have made together. Even though there was a terrible disease you girls made wonderful memories together that most of us don't take time to do with our families and when it is too late there is always that thought ( oh I wish I had took time or had time to do those things). Everything you did with Shayla, good times or bad are memories of a sister that loved you with all her heart as I know that you love her. You are such a special girl all yourself and I would be proud to call you my sister. Be brave, be strong, love your mom with all your heart ( as I am sure that you do) this is now your and her time together, make each of those moments last. Jenn, I love you and think of you often. Everyone says time heals all wounds , that's hard to accept when you have lost a piece of your heart, so I won't say it'll be okay to you, just that I hope in time you will be okay somewhat and I think YOU deserve the WORLDS GREATEST MOM AWARD.

“ I will always remember the summer we all met! Meeting for the first time at the carft fair, having you girlz over, swimming with Jiquan, cocktails with Jenn, having a sleepover with savannah, sewing a teddy bear and sleeping bags with Shayla, seeing Shay with that hamster on her head, seeing all your beautiful faces at my door on REAL halloween and many more.

Savannah, you are a beautiful person. You are so very much your own person. A true individual! But, you are also part Shayla because she lives on with you, forever. Your dignity and self assuredness are so evident. I hope you see how incredible you are. The way you express yourself, your open nature, your curiosity...you amaze me!

Jenn, you the most incredible, inspirational, graceful and resolute person I've ever met (even though you probably don't feel that way). That's how I will always see you. I commend you for sharing the gift of Shayla with me and others. I'm sure it would have been easy for you and savannah to hide her away and just keep her to yourself and love her endlessly, but you allowed us all to love her, too, and that is a gift to us all!

Shayla has changed my life forever and I can never forget.

Happy Birthday, Sweetie!

Love always,

Tammy

“ It's Shay's birthday! Even though she will age no more. We celebrate the day she came into this world. A perfect angel sent here to teach and love and laugh and learn. She is still truly missed. But, today, on her birthday, I can imagine the celebrating in heaven and here on earth. Let the dancing begin! Hugs and cheers and love all around.

“ Hello Baby Girl. My name is Diane and I understand you were welcomed into this world today! I didn't get the privalege to know you personally, but I sure did hear a lot about you from Bridget, yeah, silly Bridget. She really loved you! When you left, I found out you had 100s of people that loved you! Super Star, you are so famous! That's no surprise really, with those looks and your lovely smile! Your mom has shared pictures where I see numerous rainbows, I figure that's your 'thing', now when I see one, no matter what town I'm in, I think of you! You are playing, laughing, running around painting the sky!

You are truly missed young lady. This was such a nice thing for your sister to want to do, gave me a chance to kinda 'kick' it with you! Your mom and sis seem to be really cool people, I try to give them hugs and encouraging words when I can! Maybe one day I'll be able to meet Jen and Samantha. Today is gonna be hard for them. I'm gonna hope and pray that the pain won't be too bad, cuz yep, Samantha HAS to go to school. I'm just gonna go ahead and tell you Happy Birthday. God did a wonderful thing when he let you choose Jen Garrett to be your mommy!

“ The man who came to our house when Shayla went to heaven, and took her to the Lewis Funeral Home in Moorestown, New Jersey. He was a wonderful, compassionate and exemplary man. I miss Shayla's smile so much. Shayla's birthday is on February 15th 2005. Please feel free to welcome her a happy birthday. As her sister the past seven birthdays have been the greatest birthdays I have experienced.

“ I remember when we first found out Shay had Cancer. I had brought her this little hair brush and makeup. She went from sad and confused to happy and delighted. The look on her face that day I will never forget. I love all 3 of you girls and will be here if you need anything. Sending prayers to all of the family. Mary and Phil.... love and prayers..
