“ Mr Dunbar, as I knew him back in 2008 while I was a student and he was the librarian at JWMS in Princeton, was a great man who was kind and helpful to everyone around him. As an 8th grader, I enjoyed spending time in the library and I developed a deep friendship with him. My initial forays into the world of fiction were the results of his recommendations (Artemis Fowl and Eragon, amongst many many others) and the fact that I arrived here in 2019 - over a decade after we met - while looking for him is a testament to the impact he had on my life and the high regard that I hold him in.

I wish I had looked him up earlier and gotten an opportunity to speak with him. I can only imagine the grief experienced by his family and hope they are holding up - my deepest sympathies and sincerest condolences to them.

“Dear Dunbar family:

I wish to convey my sincerest condolences to your entire family. Losing a loved one in death is one of the hardest things that anyone will ever have to deal with. There is a great hope held out to us for the future because God promises to bring those we lost back to life by means of a resurrection to a paradise earth, where sickness and death will be no more. I hope this brief message will bring you a measure of comfort in this difficult time.

“ So sad to hear this news. That said, I knew the last few years have been such that I know Steve is resting peacefully. I was instinctively going to respectfully say Mr.Dunbar.... As he he was so loved as the cool teacher and coach when we were in HS. Everyone loved him. Katie, I am so deeply sorry for your loss. ~ ginger Vitty hayes
