“ My sincere condolences to the Younkin family. I had the honor of being Mr. and Mrs. Younkin's dental hygienist for many years. Mr. Younkin and I stayed in contact after Mrs. Younkin passed away and I left clinical practice. Mr. Younkin was one of the kindest, most intelligent, talented and interesting individuals I have ever encountered. He had a long and fulfilling life. He loved his family and loved helping others in his community. He and I had conversations about so many things in life. Although he lived more years on this Earth than most---- I wish there were more years so we could still touch base periodically and catch up with each other. I will be content with the memories I hold warmly in my heart. May you all bask in the warm years of memories you have of him--- and may those memories ease the sadness you may feel in the days ahead. He and your Mom are together---- no doubt organizing some service event in heaven!
