

Suzanne Schaffer

February 28, 2015

Suzanne Garrett Geiges Schaffer passed away on February 28, 2015, at the age of 91. A long-time resident of Haddonfield, most recently of Moorestown, Suzanne is survived by her sister, Barbara G. North(the late Robert W.) of Atlanta, GA, daughter Stacy Lynd Schaffer of Moorestown, grandson Devin Garrett Nielsen of Moorestown, four nieces and one nephew. She is predeceased by her husband of 50 years, Robert Lynd Schaffer (1998), daughter Diane Garrett Schaffer (2009), and son Stuart Pyne Schaffer (1955). After graduating from Frankford High School in Philadelphia, Suzanne went on to study at Temple University, while volunteering as a Gray Lady for the American Red Cross. She then went on to work in accounting before raising a family. She was a tireless community servant, devoting many hours volunteering for the March of Dimes, The American Red Cross, the Girl Scouts, Bancroft School, and the Haddon Fortnightly. An accomplished seamstress, she also enjoyed painting in watercolor and tending to her rose garden.

Her gentility and quiet humor; her ever-ready smile and concern for others are her enduring legacy. She will be greatly missed. Interment will be private. Please direct any donations in Suzanne's name to The Tender, senior day care for older adults, or The Moorestown Visiting Nurse Association/ Hospice.

Cemetery Details

SERVICES & INTERMENT PRIVATE

Tribute Wall

“ Suzanne Schaffer

October 09, 2023 at 03:30 AM

“ Suzanne Schaffer

November 08, 2022 at 08:26 PM

“ I'm grateful to Suzanne for bringing my best friend into this world. She passed many wonderful virtues to her daughters, and will never be forgotten.

anne Biddle - March 05, 2015 at 09:18 PM

“ Suzanne's top legacy is an angel on earth, Stacy . Both share that kind, quiet sense of humor, and never ending gift of caring about and helping others. Our deepest sympathy and much love from the Biddle clan.

anne Biddle - March 04, 2015 at 09:17 PM