“ My first memories Of Mrs. Davis were from her being the crossing guard at South Valley School during summer playground. Walking there from Borton Landing road, sometime in the late 1960's. She had an 8 track player in her car and introduced me to Ventures A Go Go, my first taste of surf music. RIP Mrs. Davis.

“ I'll always remember you as either the funny 'Meter Maid' roaming Main Street, or our crossing guard at the Presbyterian Church by the blinking yellow light on Chester Ave. Rest In Peace Toots, thanks for always getting us home safe!

“ Many a night I would be holding court with the gang, sitting in front of the ambulance at the Lenola firehouse, and Mrs. Davis would take a break from her walk and stop in. Always plenty of cutting up and fun.....the good times we all miss today. RIP Mrs. Davis!

“ My siblings and I all walked to OLG school for 1st-8th grade. She was often the crossing guard on Main Street here. She was known by us as the “ticket lady”... such a stern gem! She is definitely part of our childhood memories.

“ I'm sorry to hear of you mom's passing. My parents, myself and my children all had the pleasure of interacting with your mom at one time or another over the years, and remember her as someone who was always smiling, friendly and talkative. She was truly a great asset to the Moorestown community and is part of many warm memories, for sure.

“ Sylvia was my crossing guard at Our Lady of Good Counsel School, and then a fellow employee during my time as a police officer with the Moorestown Police Department. She was a incredible lady! A friend of mine described her perfectly, stating she was a "Moorestown Icon".
