

Teruko Schneider

March 6, 2021

Teruko Schneider (nee Uehara) passed away on March 6, 2021, at home peacefully, surrounded by family. She was 89.

She was originally from a farming village in Okinawa and then settled down in Moorestown, where she lived for over 60 years. She had worked at The Lutheran Home at Moorestown for many years. She will be remembered for always having a smile on her face and a kind, loving heart. The front door to her home was open to everyone and she was fondly called “Ma” by many, many family friends.

Teruko was preceded in death by her daughter Nancy Stevens. She is survived by her son Thomas Schneider (Kathleen) and daughters Susan White, Carol Narbut and Ann Schneider. She is also survived by six grandchildren, Robert (Bo), Laura, James, Kellie, Deanna and Jessika, her sister-in-law June Neubert and niece Samantha. She will be dearly missed by everyone.

A memorial service will be held on a future date.

In lieu of flowers, contributions may be made in Teruko’s memory to the charity of the donor’s choice.

“ I was so sorry to hear of the passing of Mrs. Schneider, an amazing woman who raised an amazing family. The Schneider home was a unique place where everybody who entered felt welcome, a consistently warm hearted place in what was sometimes an otherwise cold world, a house full of laughter, love, and light...at least that is what i remember, and Mrs. Schneider exemplified to me dignity, strength, humility, lack of pretentiousness and material superficiality, love, and compassion. May she rest in peace and in heaven with her beautiful daughter Nancy, and my condolences to the family and the others who loved her and who she left behind.

“ Mrs Schneider always welcomed everyone with open arms . I don't think I ever knocked on front door to enter. She always wanted to feed us and you couldn't say NO :) The Schneider family was a big part of my childhood .

Whenever I go back to visit it's the first place I go.

I could only wish to have half her energy in my 80's .

I will truly miss her .

My thoughts and prayers to all her family and loved ones.
