“ Saddened by the loss of a very kind man we all knew as TEDDY. He was kind hearted with a gentle soul and he touched the lives of many. We met Teddy many years ago at the White House Restaurant in Moorestown where he visited on a daily basis for years and years. Along the way he made many friends and found his way into their hearts. Although a very unique gentleman, he was always friendly and with good intention. Truly a loss and he will be sadly missed!! God Bless you Teddy and may you find peace and comfort.
