“ To the entire O'Brien/Schuman Families: We are so sorry that you have lost Tommy. He always had a smile on his face and I can't ever remember seeing him that he didn't have at least one of his daughters with him . He was a great Dad, Brother, Son and friend. Rest in peace Tom . “ So many years we worked, laughed, and argued together. I guess hard working family men do that kind of thing. I will always remember your kindness and helping me out when you brought over those huge marble slabs you had and we put them by the backyard pool to protect my daughters feet and I will never forget your green beards on St. Patricks Day. We will ride together again my friend. May peace be with you.

“ My friendship with Tom also started in Junior High, playing football at Wellwood Park, hanging at Larry's and Dan's house too many stories to tell about a great friend. in HS hanging with Bor, Nick and Corda, (and the girls) most of those stories can't be repeated.....leaving me on the over pass in Camden during my batcher party or picking up Dan from the Navy Yard, while he got a black eye, each other weddings.....too many stories and too long ago. Most recently Tom and Evelyn, Deb and I started to see each more often. Our trip to Sturgis last Aug was very special, renewing and strengthening our friendship. Reinforcing what I already knew, that Tom and Evelyn are truly special once in a life time friends. Evelyn, Nali and Roni have a great family for support and they can count Deb and I for anything they might need, now or ever. In my heart and on my bike will always carry Tom, going to miss Ya Bro!

“Where do I begin. We grew up in Philly together, Our parents were best friends, We even called each other cousins. The loves of your life and the ones that brought true joy to your heart, your sweet wife Ev and your two beautiful girls Roni and Nali. A true family man. But you did not stop there, you touched the lives of so many people. Funny, yeah, you had the funniest stories, with the squeakiest laugh I ever heard. The last story you shared with me and the actual picture, you were getting a pedicure with your daughter. You told me I needed to get one of these, it was best. You even said you would go with me. I am sorry we didn't get to do this. I can only imagine it now, with a big smile, and lots of tears. You helped my family so much when my brother Jack passed away 2 months ago. I hope we helped you too, cause I know how much you loved each other like brothers. Now heaven has 2 more great souls. Life will not be the same without you. Rest in peace cuz.

Love ya, Jimmy and Mary Lou Doyle.

“ I met Tom way back in the 9th grade at "PJH" not long after he and his family moved from Philly. We hit it off immediately - he was so genuine and likeable. I joined the Navy, too, due in a large way because of how impressed I was with Tom and Larry Quinn right after they came home from boot camp. "Squared away!"

I miss him already even though it has been too many years since I last saw him. He will never be forgotten.
