

Violette "Vi" Wetherill

August 15, 2013

After a prolonged illness with emphysema, Violette passed away to be with her Lord on August 15, 2013 at the age of 80. She was comforted during this period by her loving family. Her husband of 60 years, Don, her children, Kathy Mahony and her husband Dennis, Judi Welch and her husband Marty, Doug Wetherill and his wife Carol Rovello. In addition, she is survived by her grandchildren Sean and Caitlin Mahony, Brad and Mike Welch and Patrick and Eric Wetherill, plus great-grandchildren Tyler and Josh Welch. Violette is also survived by her brothers Allen Rosset and David Rosset and her sister Lillian Schmitt.

As a young woman, Vi was interested in sewing and making outfits for her daughters. She also made outfits for herself, one of which won first place in a county wide contest. Later in life this passion turned to counted cross stitch and petit point, an art that she had learned from her mother. After the children went off to college, she and her husband took up the game of golf. She again became quite proficient and became a member of the women's golf team at Riverton Country Club. She particularly enjoyed playing the various golf courses in the greater Philadelphia area. Vi liked to travel and her favorite vacation was ten days touring Switzerland, the country where her father had grown up. Violette was a loving and caring mother, grandmother and great-grandmother to her family as well as being a loving wife and soul mate to her husband.
