December 12, 2016

Baker, Virginia (nee Price) , age 89, died on Monday, December 12, at the Evergreens in Moorestown, NJ. Jinny was a longtime resident of Moorestown and member of the First Presbyterian Church.

Jinny loved her church, serving both First Presbyterian Moorestown and the Presbytery of West Jersey in many leadership positions: teaching Sunday school with her husband, Dick; chairing the Pastoral Nominating committee; and leading the centennial celebration of the church. She was awarded an Honorary Life Membership in Presbyterian Women. She was also active in many community groups, including the Women's Club of Moorestown and the Newcomers Club.

A fine cook, an accomplished bridge player, and an avid reader, Jinny remained active throughout her life. A warm friend, and a loving daughter, wife, mother and grandmother, she shared her affection, her compassion, and her spirit generously with everyone she met.

She was preceded in death by her beloved husband of 64 years, Richard L. Baker. She is survived by her daughters, Virginia Baker and Phyllis Niles, her son, Richard L. Baker, Jr., and grandchildren, Katherine E. McEnerney (Jerry), and Maya, Anna, and Graham Baker-Olson.

A memorial service will be held at 11:00 a.m. on Wednesday, January 4, at the First Presbyterian Church, 101 Bridgeboro Road, Moorestown, NJ 08057. In lieu of flowers, donations can be made to the First Presbyterian Church of Moorestown
