“ I can still remember the day we met back in 1976. I was attracted to you because of your sense of humor. You continued attempting to be funny (lol ) during the 33 years we were together. We raised two wonderful children, Michelle and Michael, who are devastated by your passing. I share in their grief and am so happy that Michael and I spoke to you just last week. We are in a fog right now and trying to make sense of losing you so young. I still can't believe that you are gone. I was going to come over and spend time watching tv and cleaning up for you. I'm sad that you told me not to come. It would've been our last time spent together. Thank you for allowing me to help you when you were so depressed. I wish I wish I could've helped you more. I'm happy u had a safe home and no more worries.

I pray that you are at peace with God and you're watching over our children and grandchildren. We will tell our new granddaughter when she's old enough, what a great PopPop she had.

I love you forever and you will always be a huge part of me.

Goodbye Bill ❤️❤️
